April 2024

On behalf of the Indiana School for the Deaf family - students, parents, staff, Deaf community, and ISD stakeholders - I welcome you to the XXI Annual Hoy Tournament with Hoosier hospitality! We are honored to host the many talented athletes from California School for the Deaf Riverside, California School for the Deaf Fremont, Model Secondary School for the Deaf, Texas School for the Deaf, and of course our own athletes from Indiana School for the Deaf.

The Hoy Tournament showcases students' athletic abilities from schools for the deaf across the United States, but also spotlights the camaraderie and sportsmanship that they all share. This is what makes our Deaf Schools across the nation special. New friendships are made, and lifelong friendships are renewed. The Deaf World may be small, but it is this type of experience that brings us closer together.

I hope that everyone has a great time during the tournament, and we wish you all safe travels home.

Warmest regards,

Dr. David Geeslin
Superintendent/CEO
Indiana School for the Deaf

WHO IS HOY?

One of the first well-known deaf players was William “Dummy” Hoy, a star outfielder in the late 1800’s. When Hoy retired midway through the 1902 season, he held the major league record for games played in center field, career putouts, and chances as an outfielder. He ended his career second all-time in walks and eighth in career games played. He scored over 100 runs nine times and was one of only 29 men to have played in four different major leagues.

William Ellsworth “Dummy” Hoy (1862-1961) was the first deaf player to have a long career in the major leagues. He was born in 1862 in Houcktown, northern Ohio, graduated from Ohio School for the Deaf, began his professional career in 1886, played for several major-league teams from 1888 to 1902, and died in Cincinnati in 1961 at the age of 99 years and 5 months. He enjoyed a long and successful career in baseball: 18 seasons on professional teams, including 5 with the Cincinnati Red Stockings. He was one of the few players to have played in 4 of the 5 recognized major leagues: The National League, the short-lived Players’ League, the original American Association, and the American League.

WILLIAM 'DUMMY' HOY

William Ellsworth “Dummy” Hoy (May 23, 1862 – December 15, 1961) was an American center fielder in Major League Baseball (MLB) who played for several teams from 1888 to 1902, most notably the Cincinnati Reds and two Washington, D.C. franchises. Houcktown, Ohio, U.S.

PARTICIPANTS

Welcome to the Hoy XXI Baseball and Softball Tournament!

We extend our heartfelt appreciation to all the student-athletes from participating schools. Your dedication and passion for sports have made this event possible. Thank you for bringing your best to the field and showcasing your talents.

We also want to express our gratitude to the NDIAA for their support in allowing us to host the Hoy XXI tournament in the post-COVID era. Your cooperation and guidance have been invaluable in ensuring the safety and success of this event.

The Indiana School for the Deaf wish all the teams the best of luck as they compete in this tournament. Let's play ball and make memories that will last a lifetime!

To everyone involved, from players to coaches, referees to volunteers, thank you for your hard work and dedication. Let's come together to celebrate the spirit of sportsmanship and camaraderie. Have a fantastic tournament!
